

IMMUNOTHERAPY SYMPOSIUM

DECEMBER 12, 2016

Dr. Gary Gilliland invites you to attend

Opening Celebration

The Bezos Family Immunotherapy Clinic

Monday, December 12th

3 – 5 p.m.

Pelton Auditorium, Fred Hutch

Welcome: 3:00 p.m.

Dr. Gary Gilliland, Fred Hutch President and Director

Dr. Fred Appelbaum, Fred Hutch Executive Vice President and Deputy Director

Dr. Rick Klausner, Honorary Symposium Chair, Juno Therapeutics Co-Founder and Director

Mr. Hans Bishop, Juno Therapeutics President and CEO

Dr. Stan Riddell, Fred Hutch Member, Director of Immunotherapy IRC

Dr. Rainer Storb	The history of transplantation both as a basis for immunotherapy and an example of intensive bench-to-bedside research	3:30 p.m.
Dr. Phil Greenberg	Engineering T cells to seek and destroy cancer	3:50 p.m.
Dr. Paul Nghiem	Progress in the management and immunotherapy of Merkel cell carcinoma based on multi-disciplinary, collaborative science	4:10 p.m.
Dr. Cameron Turtle	Targeting B cell malignancies with CAR-T cells	4:30 p.m.
Dr. Stan Riddell & Dr. Hy Levitsky	Vision of the future	4:50 p.m.

Reception in Double Helix Café: 5:00 p.m.

Reception graciously hosted by Juno Therapeutics

This event will be video streamed to Weintraub Building B-suites, Arnold Building Behnke Suites, and all computer workstations. Look for the live stream link on the home page of CenterNet the day of the event.

Questions? 206.667.3402 / events@fredhutch.org